Hemant Kanoria, Chairman and Managing Director, Srei Infrastructure Finance Limited, said, "The year under review has been one of the most challenging years for the infrastructure sector. This year would go down in the history of our country, where infrastructure development slowed down dramatically, due to Government being in consternation as to the path ahead because of massive private sector investments in the sector. Moving forward, the country needs to streamline the regulatory guidelines with clarity and urgency, creating an enabling environment. Our Company had put in a strategy for the year to consolidate, assess and manage risks better and improve profitability. The results clearly reflect the manifestation of our strategy."

Srei Infrastructure Businesses
