Hemant Kanoria, Chairman and Managing Director, Srei Infrastructure Finance Limited, said, "The performance of the infrastructure sector in India has been abysmal in the last couple of years. Though the revival of the power and road sector seems easy, practical and simple, it has been put into a complex governmental process. Financing of infrastructure projects at economical interest rates is an issue. We are optimistic that these problems will be addressed, sooner than later. But, till the time it happens, there will be stress on the financials of all the infrastructure players. Srei, being a large player in this sector has also seen lower profit margins, but we are hopeful of seeing a quick recovery with the anticipated pick up in the economy."
