

SEFL Code of Conduct for Board of Directors and Senior Executives

[Pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosures Requirements), Regulations, 2015]

1. INTRODUCTION

This Code of Conduct for Board of Directors and Senior Executives (Senior Vice Presidents (SVPs) and above including all Functional Heads) (hereinafter referred to as the Code) of Srei Equipment Finance Limited (the Company) helps in maintaining and following the standards of business conduct of the Company. The purpose of the Code is to deter wrongdoing and promote ethical conduct in the Company. The matters covered in this Code are of the utmost importance to the Company, its stakeholders and business partners. Further, these are essential so that the Company can conduct its business in accordance with its stated values.

Ethical business conduct is critical to a business. Accordingly, Directors and Senior Executives of the Company are expected to read and understand this Code, uphold these standards in day-to-day activities, and comply with all applicable laws; rules and regulations and all applicable policies and procedures adopted by the Company that govern the conduct of its employees. For any further clarifications, the Head of HR/Compliance Officer of the Company may be contacted.

The Board of Directors have approved this Code and it would be applicable to each Director from the date it is approved by the Board. However, in case of Senior Executives of SEFL, they should sign the acknowledgment form at the end of this Code and return the form to the HR department indicating that they have received, read and understood, and agreed to comply with the Code. The signed acknowledgment form will be filed in each Executive's personnel files.

2. APPLICABILITY

This is a comprehensive code and applies to all Directors/Senior Executives. However, the provisions shall apply to Executives and Non-Executive Directors including Independent Directors only to such extent as may be applicable depending on their respective roles and responsibilities.

The Code does not specifically address every potential form of unacceptable conduct, and it is expected that all the Directors and Senior Executives will exercise good judgement in compliance with the principles set out in this Code. Every Director/Senior Executive has a duty to avoid any circumstances that would violate the letter or spirit of this Code.

3. HONEST AND ETHICAL CONDUCT

All Directors and Senior Executives are expected to act in accordance with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty and ethical conduct, while working in the Company's premises, sponsored business and social events, or at any other place where Directors and Senior Executives represent the Company.

Honest conduct is understood as such conduct that is ethical, free from fraud or deception and conforming to the accepted professional standards. Ethical conduct includes the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships.

4. PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT OF INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

7. If a director of the company contravenes the provisions of this section such director shall be punishable with fine which shall not be less than one lakh rupees but which may extend to five lakh rupees.

6. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

An Executive's duty to the Company demands that he or she avoids and discloses actual and apparent conflicts of interest. A conflict of interest exists where the interests or benefits of one person or entity conflict with the interests or benefits of the Company. Examples include:

A. Employment / Directorship: In consideration of employment with the Company, Directors and Senior Executives are expected to devote their full attention to the business interests of the Company. Directors and Senior Executives are prohibited from engaging in any activity that interferes with their performance or responsibilities to the Company, or is otherwise in conflict with or prejudicial to the Company. SEFL's policies prohibit Directors and Senior Executives from accepting simultaneous employment with suppliers, customers, or competitors of the Company, or from taking part in any activity that enhances or supports a competitor at its position. Additionally, Directors and Senior Executives must disclose to the Company, any interest that they have that may conflict with the business of the Company.

Further, no Director or Senior Executive of the Company can serve in any other organization (except for the Company's Holding Company, Subsidiaries & Associates, if any) as Employee/Director of that organization which is doing similar business in which the Company is engaged. However, any Employee / Director of the Company may with the prior written approval of the Board of Directors/Committee/Chairman & Managing Director (CMD)/Vice Chairman (VC) of the Company accept position of non-wholetime directors in any other organization including organization which is undertaking the similar business in which the Company is engaged.

B. Related parties: As a general rule, Directors and Senior Executives should avoid conducting Company business with a relative, or with a business in which a relative is associated in any significant role. A relative for this purpose means the list of Relatives laid down in Companies Act, 2013 and includes spouse, children, parents, brothers and sisters etc. The Company discourages the employment of relatives of Senior Executives in positions or assignments within the same department. Further, the Company prohibits the employment of such individuals in positions that have a financial dependence or influence (e.g., an auditing or control relationship, or a supervisor / subordinate relationship).

C. Payments or gifts from others: Under no circumstances shall Directors and Senior Executives of the Company accept any offer, payment, promise to pay, or authorization to pay any money, gift, or anything of value from customers, vendors, consultants, etc., that is perceived as intended, directly or indirectly, to influence any business decision, any act or failure to act, any commitment of fraud, or opportunity for the commitment of any fraud. Inexpensive gifts, infrequent business meals, celebratory events and entertainment, provided that they are not excessive or create an appearance of impropriety, do not violate this policy. Before accepting anything which may not qualify as inexpensive or token gift from an employee of any entity, the Head of the HR department or the Secretarial department may be contacted. Questions regarding whether a particular payment or gift violates this policy are to be directed to HR department. Gifts given by the Company to suppliers or customers, or received from suppliers or customers, should be appropriate to the circumstances and should never be of a kind that could create an appearance of impropriety.

D. Corporate opportunities: Directors and Senior Executives may not exploit for their own personal gain the opportunities that are discovered through the use of corporate property, information or position, unless the opportunity is disclosed fully in writing to the Company.

E. Other situations: Because other conflicts of interest may arise, it would be impractical to attempt to list all possible situations. If a proposed transaction or situation raises any questions or doubts, Directors and Senior Executives must consult the Head of HR/Compliance Officer/Chairman & Managing Director (CMD)/Vice Chairman (VC).

7. INTERACTION WITH MEDIA

The Chairman & Managing Director (CMD)/Vice Chairman (VC) of the Company or any other executive authorized by the CMD/VC is the only Spokesperson/s who would interact with the media - press, radio, TV, online, social media including twitter handles. No other executive of the Company will make any statement in the media - press/radio/TV/online/Social media. No executive of the Company can criticize the Company in any article/blog/post/tweet in media - press/radio/TV/online/social media/twitter.

8. DISCLOSURE

The Company's policy is to provide full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that are filed with or submitted to any outside agency and in Company's other public communications. Accordingly, the Directors and Senior Executives must ensure that they and others in the Company comply with Company's disclosure controls and procedures, and the internal controls for financial reporting.

9. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS, RULES AND REGULATIONS/ INTERNAL COMPANY POLICIES

Directors and Senior Executives must comply with all applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations. Directors and Senior Executives must acquire appropriate knowledge of the legal requirements relating to their duties sufficient to enable them to recognize potential dangers, and to know when to seek advice. Directors and Senior Executives must comply with the Company's internal policies.

The HR Department of the Company will arrange training for those employees who are discharging the functions relating to compliance with the rules/laws/ technical know and research & development activities for their respective departments.

10. VIOLATIONS

Part of an Executive's job and of his or her ethical responsibility, is to help enforce this Code. Directors and Senior Executives should be alert to possible violations and report this to the Head of HR/Secretarial Department/Chairman & Managing Director (CMD)/Vice Chairman (VC) Directors and Senior Executives must cooperate in any internal or external investigations of possible violations. Reprisal, threat, retribution or retaliation against any person who has, in good faith, reported a violation or a suspected violation of law, this Code or other Company policies, or against any person who is assisting in any investigation or process with respect to such a violation, is prohibited.

Actual violations of law, this Code, or Company's other laid down policies or procedures, should be promptly reported to the Head of the HR/Secretarial Department/Chairman & Managing Director (CMD)/Vice Chairman (VC).

The Company will take appropriate action against any Director or Senior Executive whose actions are found to violate the Code or any other policy of the Company, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard. Where laws have been violated, the Company will cooperate fully with the appropriate authorities and regulators.

11. WAIVERS AND AMENDMENTS

The Company is committed to continuously review and update the policies and procedures. Therefore, this Code is also subject to modification. Any amendment/ inclusion or waiver of any provision of this Code must be approved by the Company's Board of Directors and promptly disclosed on the Company's website and in applicable regulatory filings pursuant to applicable laws and regulations, together with details about the nature of the modifications.
